Bet for Pets – Seventh Annual Animal Aid Bet For Pets Casino Night and Auction
World Forestry Center, Portland, Oregon
Saturday, September 17, 2011, 7:00 – 10:30 pm

It's that time again to try your luck at the gaming tables, and in the process help homeless and needy animals! Last year's event raised thousands of dollars for our shelter and our programs, and with your help we can make this year's event even more successful! Please join us and hundreds of community members for a night of gaming with KPTV's morning-news anchor Kimberly Maus as hostess and emcee for the evening of live and silent auctions, and delicious hors d'oeuvres. All proceeds benefit the animals and community members we serve.

By sponsoring, you can help us:

- Find loving homes for homeless and special needs animals.
- Reduce animal birth rates and suffering through education and spay/neuter financial assistance.
- Provide financial assistance to community members who cannot afford urgent veterinary care.
- Assist victims of domestic violence by providing safe haven for their pets.

Thank you for supporting Animal Aid; we look forward to seeing you at the event!

The Animal Aid Mission

For 42 years, our commitment has been to help both animals and people live healthier and more fulfilling lives. Our dogs live in loving foster homes, while cats roam freely in our no-kill shelter. Helping us to care for the animals is a team of amazing volunteers. Volunteers include young children with their parents, teens, adults, and local community service organizations.

Your generous donation will allow us to continue to help homeless animals and make a positive difference in our community.
